

ALIGNED SLE QUESTIONS TO THE QT FRAMEWORK

My instructor modeled and promoted inclusivity.

The course materials were accessible to me.

I felt like I belonged in this course.

This course was structured so that I could work effectively with others who were different from me.

I had the necessary resources to achieve the course learning outcomes.

Course learning activities helped me connect to the content.

This course was well organized.

Course activities gave me the chance to show my progress towards course learning outcomes.

Feedback on tests, assignments, and/or graded activities informed my thinking and learning.

Directions and expectations for tests, assignments, and/or graded activities were clear.

Tests, assignments, and/or graded activities matched the course learning outcomes.

My instructor addressed students' non-academic needs.

I had opportunities to develop professional skills.

I had opportunities to become a better learner.